2021 Mixed Magic Tournament

SANTA BARBARA, CA. (September 7th, 2021) This season the Santa Barbara Polo & Racquet Club introduced the Mixed Magic Tournament. A unique tournament with 1 male player with 3 women on each team. This makes for a fast and fun women's tournament with the help of the male pro's. Four teams competed for the trophy, Puesta del Sol, San Saba, Beauties & the Beast, and Patagones/CCPC.

This tournament was exceptionally special as each team had a family duo: husband and wife, Santi and Anita Wulff, father and daughter, Maco and Lucia Llambias, mother and son, Claudia and Patrick Uretz, and brother and sister Jesse and Mia Bray.

After winning the first round of games on Friday, Patagones/CCPC and San Saba advanced into the final. It was a close game with the two teams exchanging goals. San Saba started the last chukker up by only a half goal. Melanja Jones scored a goal with just a few minutes left to take the lead but it was quickly retaliated by Sofie Grant's fourth goal in the day. Just when we thought the game was over, Megan Judge scored one more goal to win the game 5.5-5.

The winning team, Santi Wulff, Anita Wulff, Melanja Jones, and Megan Judge celebrated by hoisting the trophy above their heads as the first ever Mixed Magic Champions. Melanja expressed her delight, "It was pure joy to play with my friends both on my team and all the other teams in fast, open polo. It was a special treat to get out from behind the clipboard and on to the main field and especially to compete against such strong players like Dawn Jones who play all over the world. I appreciate very much the support from the whole club and our polo community for this unique tournament."

Sophie Grant was awarded MVP for her strong offensive and defensive plays. Her second chukker horse Reinoso, owned by Dawn Jones, was selected as Best Playing Pony.
